

NRPT Insurance - Statement of Fact

Please read and check you can comply with the following statements and if you are unable to comply with any aspect, please detail in full which aspect on a separate page:

1. You hold recognised professional qualifications for the therapies or treatment you offer.
2. You are either:
 - a. A self-employed individual working from home or on a mobile basis; or
 - b. A self-employed individual employed by a third-party; or
3. You hold all clients record for a minimum of ten years after the date of treatment.
4. You earn a maximum of £50,000 per annum.

Claims and losses. You confirm the following statements to be true.

1. You are not aware of any shortcoming in your work that could lead to a claim against you. This could include a shortcoming which you cannot reasonably put right or a complaint about your work or anything you have supplied which cannot be immediately resolved.
2. You are not aware of any loss from the suspected dishonesty or malice of any employee or self-employed freelancer.
3. You or any of your partners or directors either personally or in any business capacity have never been declared bankrupt or insolvent or made arrangements with creditors.
4. For any malpractice or professional indemnity insurance, you have never had a policy:
 - a. Cancelled or
 - b. Refused or
 - c. Renewal Refused or
 - d. Only accepted by an insurer with special terms and conditions attached

Material information

Please provide us with details of any information that may be relevant to our consideration of your insurance. If you have any doubt over whether something is relevant, please let us have details.

Your information

By agreeing to this statement of fact, you consent to the Insurers using the information we may hold about you or others related to your policy for the purposes of providing insurance and handling claims, if any, and to process sensitive personal information about you or others related to your policy where this is necessary (for example health information or criminal convictions). This may mean Insurers have to give some details to third parties involved in providing insurance cover. These may include insurance carriers, third-party claims adjusters, fraud detection and prevention services, third-party service providers, reinsurance companies, insurer tracing offices and insurance regulatory authorities. Where such sensitive personal information relates to anyone other than you, you must obtain the explicit consent of the person to whom the information relates both to the disclosure of such information to us and its use by Insurers as set out above. The information provided will be treated in confidence and in compliance with all relevant regulation and legislation. You or others related to your policy may have the right to apply for a copy of this information (for which Insurers may charge a small fee) and to have any inaccuracies corrected. For training and quality control purposes, telephone calls may be monitored or recorded.